

SNAG FOR SHARKEY IN WASHINGTON

Roosevelt Opposed to Brooklyn Man Because of Civil Service Charge.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Ex-Lieut. Gov. Timothy D. Woodruff of New York, and Republican leader of Brooklyn, had a conference with President Roosevelt to-day regarding four Brooklyn appointments, which are pending. They are those of George Roberts, Postmaster of Brooklyn; Robert Sharkey, Naval Officer of the Port; Edward J. Jordan, Collector of Internal Revenue; and Charles H. Haupt, United States Marshal for the Brooklyn district.

The Republican organization in Brooklyn has recommended the appointment of all four of the officials. Roberts and Jordan have served one term each, while the other two have been in office for eight years. Woodruff urged the reappointment of the four men and was supported in this request by Representatives Bennett and Calder.

It appears probable that Roberts, Jordan and Haupt will be reappointed but as to Sharkey there is a hitch. The Civil Service Commission is in receipt of communications alleging that he has been peremptorily active in politics and that he has violated the civil service regulations in the promotion of employees in his office. The President indicated to Mr. Woodruff that he did not desire, therefore, to reappoint Mr. Sharkey.

Mr. Woodruff insisted, however, that the charges against Sharkey were not well founded and that he knew of his own knowledge that they were not true. The President summoned Civil Service Commissioner Cooley to the White House and the subject was discussed informally.

It was arranged that Mr. Woodruff and Commissioner Cooley should meet later and consider the matter fully, in the light of all the facts, and that the result of their conference should be reported to the President.

Mr. Woodruff took luncheon with the President, that opportunity being embraced to discuss not only the Brooklyn appointments, but the whole New York political situation.

LITTLETON DENIES HE'S PLAYING POLITICS

Not Hitting at McCarran in Franchise Bureau Change.

The suggestion of Borough President Littleton to remove the Bureau of Franchises from the Comptroller's office to the Department of Estimates and Appropriations has caused much talk. "Viscous" says that it is the first move of the anti-McCarran forces to get as much of the patronage away from the newly elected Comptroller as possible.

"The shuffling process has begun," said Littleton, "and Metz will get his good and plenty."

"Not at all," said Mr. Littleton to-day, "I have been trying to get that bureau where it belongs for a good while. Politics has nothing whatever to do with the case."

"It is not a question of patronage at all," said Comptroller Metz. "There is not a single position in that bureau exempt from civil service and patronage has nothing to do with it. The motion to shift the bureau will come up at Friday's meeting of the Board."

It appears probable that Roberts, Jordan and Haupt will be reappointed but as to Sharkey there is a hitch. The Civil Service Commission is in receipt of communications alleging that he has been peremptorily active in politics and that he has violated the civil service regulations in the promotion of employees in his office.

PANIC ON TRAIN AS ENGINE ROD BREAKS

Mile-a-Minute Express on Jersey Central Narrowly Escapes Wreck.

(Special to The Evening World.) PLAINFIELD, N. J., Dec. 6.—While speeding through this city at the rate of seventy miles an hour at 4:45 A. M. to-day one of the last Royal Blue hourly expresses on the New Jersey Central was all but wrecked by a peculiar accident.

The driving rod on the fireman's side of the engine broke in half and the studs, whirling about, smashed the cab. At the same time one of the flying ends jerked a driving wheel out of place and the locomotive travelled for fully a thousand feet careening over toward the next track.

The engineer, almost blinded by a rush of steam, applied the emergency brakes and brought the train to a stop barely in time to save the engine from going over.

The passengers were in a panic and fled from the cars as soon as they could get out.

Both the engineer, Theodore Ties of Jersey City, and the fireman, John Burns, of Bayonne, escaped injury, the latter being in the tender when the rod broke.

The accident resulted in the injury of a small boy, Frank Muller, of Raritan, who was walking along a street adjoining the railroad. The flying driving rod threw up a shower of stones and one heavy missile struck him on the head, knocking him unconscious.

He was hurried to Mulienberg Hospital in a dying condition.

A section of the cab was hurled through the front door of a residence on East Fourth street.

Henry Cherry, No. 345 East Twenty-third street, who was driving the runaway, with James McGuire, a stablekeeper, of No. 18 East Twenty-fourth street, had his left arm broken and McGuire has a possible fracture of his right leg. Their vehicle was wrecked. They were taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

The Battalion Chief's wagon was driven by Fireman William Cosine, and the woman ran down by Steinmetz Denno, eighty years old, of No. 4 Horatio street. Mr. Denno suffered painful bruises and was taken to St. Vincent's.

While attempting to cross Broadway, Williamsburg, to-day to reach the Broadway Theatre, Mrs. Wulmer, of No. 104 Smith street, Brooklyn, and her five-year-old son, Albert, were knocked down and injured by a horse attached to a department store delivery wagon. Mrs. Wulmer was rendered unconscious. A front wheel of the wagon passed over the child.

Many persons in the Williamsburg shopping district saw the short of the wagon strike the woman and child. The sufferers were carried into a drug store and an ambulance was called. The driver was detained.

THREE IN HOSPITAL HURT BY FIRE HORSES

Chief's Wagon Knocks Woman Down—Engine Tender Injures Two Men.

Three persons were sent to St. Vincent's Hospital to-day, one of them a woman eighty years old, and so seriously injured she may die through accidents which occurred while fire engines and trucks were answering an alarm for a small blaze at No. 14 Bank street. The first person injured was Mrs. Sotheim, a woman, eighty years old, of No. 4 Horatio street, who was knocked down by the fire engine's wagon, driven by William Cosine, as she was crossing the street in front of her home. The others injured are James McGuire, No. 18 East Twenty-fourth street, and Henry Cherry, No. 345 East Twenty-third street.

McGuire and Cherry were in a runaway on Fifth avenue, near Twelfth street, when their vehicle was knocked over by the tender of Engine 72, driven by John Tiernan. Cherry's left arm was fractured and McGuire was badly cut and bruised. They were taken to St. Vincent's, where Mrs. Sotheim, in serious condition from shock and contusions, had just arrived.

ONE GIRL'S EXPERIENCE "If I had purchased all the materials and the various things that have gone into the hat which I have turned this year, I believe I would not have been able to spend another cent for anything else. Instead I bought Diamond Dyes. Many people seem to think that velvet cannot be dyed successfully, but it can, with Diamond Dyes.—Miss Virginia Vancey, Dallas, Tex."
